

The idea of cross-ownership, the concentration of media in a community area in one owner's hands, is complete contrary to any fair coverage of the news and would only be considered by those who want only state approved news to reach the people. Give up the idea!